Description

A Gillies Jones glass vase of free form with blue ribbed accents standing on a pedestal foot. Signed to the base Gillies Jones Rosedale.

Stephen Gillies and Kate Jones have made contemporary glass in Rosedale Abbey in the middle of the North York Moors National Park since 1995. Known for their engraved decoration and sculptural, fluid forms, their work is in numerous museum collections including London's Victoria & Albert Museum, The National Museum of Scotland and The Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge.
